

Organ Recital at St Luke's Enmore with Stanmore

From Vienna to Enmore, accomplished young Australian-born organist David Reccia Chynoweth performs works by J S Bach, Koehne, Alexandre Guilmant & others on the Wordsworth & Maskell Pipe Organ (1883), unique in Australia.

Sunday, 29 March 2020 at 3pm

Keep the date - share with your contacts!

Getting there

St Luke's Anglican Church Enmore with Stanmore

11 Stanmore Road, Enmore NSW (between Enmore Road and Liberty Street, opposite 7-Eleven).

Parking: limited local street-parking available, or Inner West Council operated car park located at 10 Edgeware Road, Enmore.

By train from City Circle: (in the direction of Homebush, Parramatta or Leppington) to Newtown Station and then

Bus Routes: 423, 426, 428 and M30 (in the direction of Dulwich Hill, Canterbury, Kingsgrove or Sydenham) from Newtown Station Stand D to the bus stop near the intersection of Enmore Road.

Buses 423, 426, 428 and M30 also depart from Central Station, Railway Square Stand L.

Walking: 15 minutes from Newtown Station along Enmore Road to Stanmore Road.

Recital: $10 including programme notes.