

Unfinished Business: Save the Date!

It's thirty years since Anglican women were first ordained as priests in Australia.

But there are still dioceses – Sydney Diocese chief among them – that limit or refuse to acknowledge women's ordained ministry. The time is ripe to challenge this stance.

The Movement for the Ordination of Women Australia is organising a conference in Sydney from 16 to 18 September 2022 – Unfinished Business – to recognise the struggle for Anglican women's ordination in Australia, celebrate the courage and service of ordained women, and honour those who have fought for women's ordination over many years.

The program is still being finalised, but speakers who will be addressing the past, present and future of women's ordained ministry include Dr Julia Baird, Professor Eileen Baldry AO, the Rev'd Val Graydon, Ms Anne Hywood, the Rev'd Canon Professor Dorothy Lee, the Hon Keith Mason AC QC, the Rev'd Dr Lesley McLean, the Rev'd Dr Colleen O'Reilly AM, Dr Gwenneth Roberts, Dr Jacqueline Service, the Rev'd Gloria Shipp, and the Rev'd Elisa Helen Waterhouse CSC.

The conference will be held at Christ Church St Laurence, 812 George Street, Sydney. Program and registration details will be posted on the MOW website as they become available (<https://mowatch.com.au/>)
